ARLINGTON COLTS

ENROLLMENT: 2,962 (3)

2010 RECORD: 7-4 5A Div. II Bi-District Playoffs

THE COACH: Scott Peach

THE WORD: One word can describe this edition of the Colts and that's "loaded." 9 starters on offense and 10 starters on defense return from a team that took Abilene to the brink in the bi-district round of the playoffs a year ago. There are two big losses as do it all QB Miles Onyegbule is now at Texas and the heart and soul of the defense Laderice Sanders is now at TCU, but Coach Peach feels there's enough talent ready to step in and fill the gaps. It all starts on offense with the three year starter Dickerson in the backfield, as a junior he ran for 18 touchdowns and over 1600 yards and with the Colts breaking in a new full time starter who doesn't run as much as the previous signal caller look for Dickerson to get 20 plus touches per game. Greer who did start two games last year and fared well should step in and take charge on offense. He's 6'5 and has a very good arm so don't be surprised if he gets some FBS offers before the end of the season. Greer has a trio of receivers with experience in Vera, Robinson and Parker who combined for 44 catches and 7 touchdowns in a run oriented attack. Vera who transferred in from North Crowley adds solid depth to the receiving corps. Year in and year out, Arlington fields one of the top offensive lines in the DFW area and 2011 should be no different with Lysenko and Montiel leading the way. On defense Thomas anchors the middle, he's big and is very quick off the ball and more than capable of being disruptive to the opposing offense. Sammy and Curtis Douglas along with Hawbaker give the Colts a trio of LB's with experience. Ochola notched six interceptions a year ago and will anchor the secondary, keep an eye on young talent Nwangwa who is expected to secure a starting role as a sophomore. With so many starters back this could be a team with a lot of depth as players from a 6-4 JV squad will move up to provide quality depth and special teams play.
