PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

OFFENSE | Plano West's Carlos Wiggins

What he did: In Plano West's four-overtime 44-36 victory against rival Plano East, Wiggins rushed for 185 yards and four touchdowns. He scored two of them in the extra periods and also added a two-point conversion. Plano West is 2-0 in District 8-5A after going winless in the district last season.

Who is he: A 5-9, 165-pound senior running back.

The stats: 32 carries for 185 rushing yards, 4 TDs. Four receptions for 42 yards.

He said it: "Last year we had a problem finishing, and we didn't want to make the same mistakes. We focused."

Coach said it: "He's one of those guys that wants the ball. He knew that we were counting on him." - Mike Hughes

Did you know? Wiggins mainly played slot receiver at Plano West until this season. ... He runs the 200-meters in track. ... His favorite NFL and college players are Percy Harvin and LaMichael James. ... Wiggins said he was receiving interest from North Texas, SMU and others.

Mark Dent

DEFENSE | Arlington's Jack Arispé

What he did: In a 47-16 victory over Arlington Martin, he led his team in tackles as the Colts upset the previously undefeated Warriors, who were No. 5 in the News' Class 5A rankings.

Who he is: A 5-11, 170-pound junior linebacker.

The stats: He had 17 tackles, including nine solo tackles, one tackle for a loss, one sack, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

He said it: "We were really focused because we needed to win that game. [The linebackers] worked hard all week on filling the gaps. We were mainly trying to stop the run."

Coach said it: "He has been waiting for his opportunity, and when it came, he delivered. That shows you what kind of kid he is. He does everything we ask him to [do]. He's totally committed to Arlington High School football."

- Scott Peach

Did you know: He was making his first start, filling in for Gavin Hawbaker, who was out with a concussion. ... He also plays catcher on the Colts' baseball team. ... Favorite hobby: Madden NFL video game.
