PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

OFFENSE | JOSH BROWN, BRYAN ADAMS

What he did: In Bryan Adams' victory over Spruce, Brown led for 347 yards and a record six touchdowns. Victory clinched a playoff for Bryan Adams.

Who he is? A 6-4, 190-pound quarterback.

The stats: 28-of-41 passing for 347 yards and six touchdowns.

What he said: "I read the defense really well. The receivers ran great routes, and the line was blocking well. All my passes were right where I wanted them to go."

Coach said it: "He basically does an extremely good job of reading the defense. ... He was very poised in the pocket." — coach Derick Roberson

Did you know? Brown has played quarterback since he was 4 years old. ... His six touchdown passes almost doubled his season total (he has 13). ... Brown is a shooting guard on the Bryan Adams basketball team and competes in long jump, triple jump and high jump in track. ... He is receiving interest from colleges to play football and has an offer from a Division II school.

Mark Dent

DEFENSE | GRANT MICHALAK, MCKINNEY NORTH

What he did: In a 22-14 win over Rockwall, Michalak had three interceptions and broke up a pass in the end zone on Rockwall's final play.

Who he is: A 5-11, 165-pound senior safety

The stats: Three interceptions, three passes broken up

He said it: "On that last play, the crowd was going crazy, which was neat. Their receiver ran a post, and our linebacker was underneath him and I was over the top, and we managed to break it up. It felt great because it was such a big game for us."

Coach said it: "He's one of the best kids we've had. He has quietly made a lot of big plays. He has worked real hard for everything he has gotten." — McKinney North coach Mike Fecci

Did you know? Michalak's five interceptions have come in the last two games. He had two against Highland Park. ... Plays shortstop on McKinney North's baseball team. His favorite sport? "If you ask me now, I'd say football. If you ask me in the spring, I'd say baseball," he said. ... Favorite hobby: fishing.
