

SPORTS

Arlington playoff teams dominate District 4-5A football honor roll

All-District 4-5A football team

MVP — Tavarreon Dickerson, senior, Arlington

Offensive Player of the Year — Josh Price, senior, North Crowley

Defensive Player of the Year — Devonte Fields, senior, Martin

Co-Offensive Sophomore Players of the Year — Kris Thigpen, Bowie; Cameron Smith, Lamar

Defensive Sophomore Player of the Year — Edwin Freeman, Bowie

Special teams Player of the Year — Matt Waller, Martin

Coach of the Year — Bob Wager, Martin

First-team offense

Tackles — Steven Baggett, Martin; Jaylyn McDuffie, Bowie; Daniel Montiel, Arlington

Guards — Jeremiah Robbins, Arlington; Daniil Ly-senko, Arlington; Demonte Hood, Bowie

Center — Trey Esterline, Martin

Quarterback — Josh Greer, Arlington

Running backs — Kyle Hicks, Martin; Russell Hans-brough, Bowie

Fullbacks — Matt Young, Paschal; Jeremy Hall, Sam Houston

Receivers — Xavier Matthews, North Crowley; Josh Sweet, North Crowley; Dontha Robinson, Arlington; DaQuan Thomas, Lamar; D.J. White, Bowie

Tight end — Austin Rogers, Martin

Kicker — Ben Grogan, Martin

First-team defense

Tackles — Derrick White, Lamar; Mustafa Haboul, Martin

Ends — Merveil Lufuluabo, Arlington; Jessie Rogers, Bowie

Linebackers — Jaquirous Jackson, Bowie; Sammy Douglas, Arlington; Deandre Wilson, Lamar

Safeties — Paris Watson, Lamar; Cameron Williams, Martin; Curtis Douglas, Arlington; Malik Tipler, Bowie

Cornerbacks — Davion Jackson, Lamar; Devin Harris, Arlington; Eric Amoako, Martin; Stephen Amoako, Martin

Punters — Brodie Lambert, Martin; Tyler Reynolds, Weatherford

Arlington High running back Tavarreon Dickerson was named the most valuable player of District 4-5A for this season.

Star-Telegram archives